

RESOLUTION NO. 103

WHEREAS, Elaine Watts has served with distinction as Redmond's U.S.O. chairman for the past four and one-half years, and

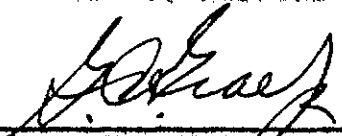

WHEREAS, through her efforts she has been instrumental in organizing Redmond's civic organizations and businessmen to provide monthly U.S.O. dances for military personnel stationed in the Redmond area, and

WHEREAS, through her chairmanship, the Redmond U.S.O. dances have played a prominent role in the acceptance of the military as an intergal part of the Redmond community and in furthering relationships between the military and civilian components of Redmond, Now, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Town of Redmond, through its Council, does hereby acknowledge and declare its appreciation of the untiring efforts of Elaine Watts as U.S.O. chairman and commends her for her meritorious service to the Redmond community.

Regularly passed and adopted by the Town Council of Redmond, Washington, this 25th day of January, 1961.
