

RESOLUTION NO. 116

A RESOLUTION, relating to the establishment of a community junior college in the Redmond area of King County, Washington.

WHEREAS, Lake Washington School District No. 414 has announced plans to make application to the State Board of Education for authorization to establish a community junior college in the Redmond area of King County, Washington; and

WHEREAS, there exists in the Redmond area approximately 160 acres of state-owned land, contiguous to the Redmond City limits and adjacent to the site of the Redmond Senior High School, to wit:

The SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NW $\frac{1}{4}$; the S $\frac{1}{2}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$; and the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$, all in Sec. 36, T 26 N, R 5 E, WM, King County, Washington.

WHEREAS, such property would make an attractive site for such a college and is ideally situated geographically to serve the growing needs of this portion of King County and the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, such property may be readily acquired from the state for the purpose of locating such a school facility, at a nominal cost to the district and without the necessity of an expensive purchase of other land or taking other land off the tax rolls; and

WHEREAS, such property may be served with municipal water and sewer and other utilities, easily and economically by short extensions of existing systems; and

WHEREAS, the City of Redmond is vitally interested in the early establishment of the proposed community junior college at the most practical site in the Redmond area, Now, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Redmond recommend that the Board of Directors of the Lake Washington School District No. 414 and the State Board of Education take immediate steps for the early establishment of a community junior college in the Redmond area and that action be taken to acquire the state-owned property above described as the most practical site for such college.

PASSED by the Council of the City of Redmond, Washington, at a regular meeting thereof and APPROVED by the Mayor this 24th day of July, 1962.
