_____)

On November 20, 2015, the Redmond Hearing Examiner an open record appeal hearing in the above-captioned appeal.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the Examiner announced a decision issuance date of December 8, 2015. However, by her own error the Examiner calendared the decision issuance deadline for December 14, 2015.

At this time, the Examiner requests of the parties that they grant an extension for decision issuance through December 14, 2015. If this is unanimously agreed to, the date will be extended to December 14th. If any party denies the requested extension, the decision will issue as soon as possible, but it will not issue today, its due date.

Requested December 8, 2015.
