Cheryl,

I did not appeal until later because I was not initially opposed to the project. I assumed that the City would follow its own guidelines and rules and the project would be a positive for downtown. When I heard about the parking exemption and then subsequently other exemptions the City made I was alarmed. I thought I should appeal since perhaps this was now the Wild West and late appeals would be allowed.

Please find attached a motion that was sent out earlier today regarding the Applicant's motion to dismiss Ives' and Nelson's appeals. I am resending to make sure all Parties receive this document.
