CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON

RESOLUTION NO. 458

A RESOLUTION, relating to planning; endorsing the concept of joint spheres of influence; and urging its establishment in conjunction with King County and nearby municipalities.

WHEREAS, land use and related development decisions of King County, the City of Redmond and nearby municipalities, each have a significant impact upon the development and planning objectives of these several governmental units and may create conflicts in the plans, policies, development standards and which are adopted and continually reviewed by such governmental units criteria, and

WHEREAS, through a joint spheres of influence program a means may be provided to coordinate and resolve conflicts in the development and planning objectives and plans of the several governmental units affected and King County, through Motion 3090, adopted June 27, 1977, has declared its intention of implementing such a program within King County; and

WHEREAS the City Council has reviewed the proposed joint spheres of influence program and deems it appropriate and in the best interests of the City of Redmond to participate in such a program; Now, Therefore

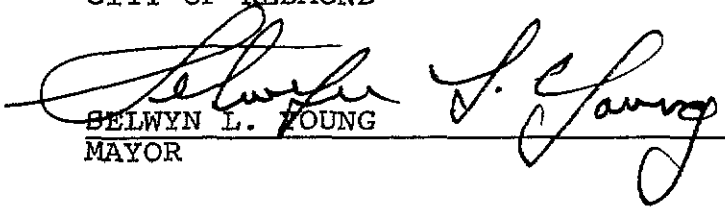

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND DO RESOLVE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Conceptual endorsement of program. The City of Redmond hereby endorses the concept of the joint spheres of influence program and declares its interest and intention to develop and participate in such a program with King County and affected nearby municipalities.

2. King County urged to proceed. King County is urged to undertake the necessary and appropriate action to consider and develop a joint spheres of influence program concept as soon as possible for unincorporated King County and participating governmental units therein affected by land use and interrelated development decisions within King County, Washington.

PASSED by the Council of the City of Redmond, Washington, at a regular meeting thereof, and APPROVED by the Mayor this 7th day of February, 1978.
