CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON

RESOLUTION NO. 487

A RESOLUTION, commemorating Christmas 1978 as a time for giving and a commitment towards enhancing the quality of life in Redmond.

WHEREAS, a festive spirit pervades the month of December; a time of good will, fellowship, brotherly love, joy and peace; and

WHEREAS, the Christmas season is marked by giving---not just of gifts around the Yuletide tree, but a time for giving of ourselves to others; and

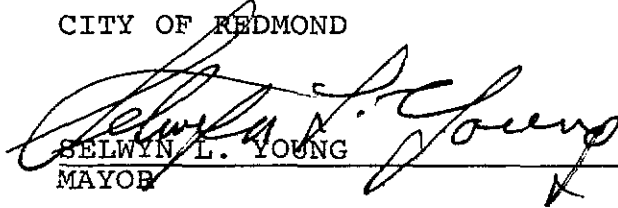

WHEREAS, we are reminded that each of us enjoy the greatest gift of all: that of the tremendous adventure of life itself in a very wonderous way---and in turn we have a responsibility to share that life with others in a meaningful way---to reach out and touch others with a helping hand in whatever way we can; and

WHEREAS, those of us in city government and citizens all are involved and committed towards people helping people and the great challenge to us all is to improve the quality of life and living within the Redmond environs,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Christmas 1978 be commemorated as a time for giving---for a giving of ourselves to help others in every way possible to improve their lives and for each of us to understand the true meaning and significance of life through an interaction with another human being in a helpful and caring way; that there be a renewed dedication and commitment of those of us in city government and all citizens to the utilization of our resources and energies to enhance and improve the quality of life and the attributes of living throughout the city; that attention be given to those environmental qualities that preserve natural amenities which are so vital to a people oriented community; and, finally, that the spirit of Christmas past, present and future transcend petty differences and foster peace and good will towards all.

PASSED by the Council of the City of Redmond, Washington
at a regular meeting thereof, and APPROVED by the Mayor this 19th day of December, 1978.
