

RESOLUTION NO. 932

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF
THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON,
JOINING WITH THE BULLITT FOUNDATION
AND SEATTLE-KING COUNTY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL IN PLANS FOR
"OIL SMART WEDNESDAYS" IN MARCH

WHEREAS, the Seattle-King County Economic Development Council is the host organization for the Commuter Challenge program, and

WHEREAS, the Seattle-King County Economic Development Council has joined with other organizations in support of the Bullitt Foundation's plans for "Oil Smart Wednesdays" in March, and

WHEREAS, the City of Redmond is a Commuter Challenge Pacesetter organization, and

WHEREAS, the Seattle-King County Economic Development Council has encouraged the City of Redmond to use "Oil Smart Wednesdays" to broaden participation by City employees in the City's Employee Transportation Program.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, DOES RESOLVE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. To encourage City of Redmond employees to carpool, ride the bus, bicycle or walk to work on "Oil Smart Wednesdays."

Section 2. To encourage eligible employees when feasible to telecommute and work at home on "Oil Smart Wednesdays."

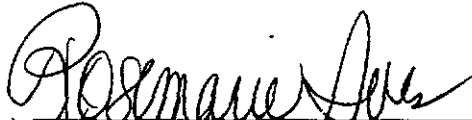

Section 3. To encourage City of Redmond employees to carpool, ride the bus, bicycle or walk to work both during "Oil Smart Wednesdays" and on an on-going basis.

Section 4. To encourage work schedule flexibility for employees wherever possible to make it easier for them to share a ride or use the bus,

Section 5. To encourage work schedule flexibility so that commuters can travel earlier or later so there will be less wasted time and fuel due to congestion during the peak commuting periods.

RESOLVED THIS 2nd day of March, 1993.
