ORDINANCE NO. 1373

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, AMENDING CHAPTER 2.86 OF THE REDMOND MUNICIPAL CODE TO REVISE CITY REGULATIONS FOR THE SELECTION OF ARCHITECTURAL AND ENGINEERING CONSULTANTS

WHEREAS, the City Public Works Department has been notified by the Washington State Department of Transportation that certain portions of the Regulations set forth in Redmond Municipal Code Chapter 2.86 governing selection of architectural and engineering consultants are in conflict with federal regulations applicable to federally funded transportation improvement projects, and

WHEREAS, in order to protect the eligibility of the City to receive federal funding for transportation improvement projects, the City Council has determined that the City's regulations governing selection of architectural and engineering consultants should be modified to the extent necessary to comply with applicable federal regulations, now, therefore,

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. A new section 2.86.0^{7 (ds)}0 is hereby added to the Redmond Municipal Code to read as follows:

2.86.070 - Scope of Regulations - Exemption for Funding Source Requirements. The regulations set forth in this Chapter shall govern selection of architectural and engineering consultants for all City projects, provided that when these regulations are in conflict with requirements applicable to the use of federal funds or funds supplied by the State of Washington, the requirements of this Chapter shall be deemed to be modified to the extent necessary to avoid such conflict.

Section 2. Redmond Municipal Code Section 2.86.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2.86.020 - Projects over $10,000.00 - Solicitation of Written Proposals. In the case of each project to be undertaken by the City which will require architectural or engineering services which are likely to cost in excess of $10,000.00, the Director of Public Works shall solicit written proposals from a minimum of five firms, which, based upon the statements of qualifications on file with the City and other available information, appear to be the most qualified firms to provide the particular services required. The written proposals shall include the following:

- (a) Evidence of the firm's current ability to provide the required services;
- (b) A proposed scope of work to be provided;
- (c) The proposed total cost of providing the services;
- (d) A current statement of references and any other information which will be helpful in evaluating the applicants' qualifications for the proposed project.

Section 3. This ordinance, being an administrative action, is not subject to referendum and shall take effect five (5) days after publication.
