

ORDINANCE NO. 1480

ORIGINAL

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, AMENDING VARIOUS SECTIONS OF THE REDMOND
MUNICIPAL CODE RELATING TO FEES AND PROVIDING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF FEES BY COUNCIL RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that administrative fees should be set by resolution rather than by ordinance, now, therefore,

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Cemetery Charges. Section 2.60.010 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2.60.010 Price of Cemetery Lots. The price schedule for the sale of cemetery lots in the Redmond Cemetery, including the endowment funds contribution, shall be established by Council Resolution.

Section 2. Business License Fees. Sections 5.04.050 and 5.04.060 of the Redmond Municipal Code are hereby amended to read as follows:

5.04.050 Fees - Payment.

- A. Except for businesses which are exempt from the provisions of this Chapter pursuant to Section 5.04.080, every person engaging in business in the City shall pay an annual license fee in an amount to be set by Council Resolution.
- B. The annual license fee shall become due and payable on the first day of each calendar year as to any business required to have a business license under this chapter and in existence on this date. As to any business commenced during the year, the annual license fee shall be due and payable on the first day that business is transacted or carried on. The business license fee shall not be prorated for any part of the year nor shall the business license issued under this chapter be transferable.
- C. Payment made by draft or check shall not be deemed a payment of the fee unless and until the same has been honored in the usual course of business, nor shall acceptance of any such check or draft operate as an acquittance or discharge of the fee unless and until the check or draft is honored.

- D. If any person required by the terms and provisions of this chapter to pay a license fee for any period fails to refuse to do so, he shall not be granted a license for the current period until the delinquent license fee, together with penalties, has been paid in full. Any license fee due and unpaid under this chapter and any penalties thereon, shall constitute a debt to the city and may be collected in court proceedings in the same manner as any other debt in like amount, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies.
- E. Failure to pay the license fee within thirty days after the day on which it is due and payable shall render the licensee subject to a penalty. Such penalty shall be set by Council Resolution.

5.04.060 Operating Without a License. Any person who engages in, or carries on, any business subject to the payment of a license fee hereunder without having obtained a business license to do so shall be guilty of a violation of this Chapter for each day during which the business is so engaged in, or carried on; and any person subject thereto who fails or refuses to pay the license fee, or any part thereof, on or before the due date, shall be deemed to be operating without having obtained a license to do so.

Section 3. Peddler/Hawker License. Section 5.08.030(B) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

- B. At the time of the filing of the application, a fee in an amount set by Council Resolution shall be paid to the City Clerk to cover the cost of investigation and processing the application.

Section 4. Pawnbrokers and Secondhand Dealers. Section 5.10.040 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.10.040 License Fees.

- A. The fee for a pawnbroker's license and the fee for a secondhand dealer's license shall be set by Council Resolution.
- B. License fees shall be due and payable on January 1st of each year for which the license is issued. The fees becoming due for less than one year shall be prorated on a quarterly basis. This license shall be in lieu of the city business license and shall not be assignable or transferable. Further, the obtaining of a pawnbroker's license shall preclude the need for a secondhand dealer's license.

Section 5. Detective Agencies, Private Detectives and Private Guards. Sections 5.12.030, 5.12.040 and 5.12.090 of the Redmond Municipal Code are hereby amended to read as follows:

5.12.030 Detective Agency License-Fee. It is unlawful for any person to engage in business as a detective agency without having first obtained and being the owner of a valid and subsisting license to do so, to be known as a "detective agency license" and having on file a surety bond as required by Section 5.12.080. The fee for a detective agency license shall be set by Council Resolution.

5.12.040 Private Detective License-Fee. It is unlawful for any person, whether licensed as a detective agency or not, to engage in the private detective business or to act, or engage in business as a private detective without first obtaining and being the owner and holder of a valid and subsisting license to do so to be known as a "private detective license," the fee for which shall be set by Council Resolution; provided, that a private detective license shall, without the payment of any additional fee therefore, be issued to an individual, to one member of a partnership, or firm, or to one officer of a corporation holding a detective agency license or employed by the holder of a detective agency license. On such private detective license shall be designated the number of the detective agency license by reason of which the private detective license is issued. The license shall be in force and effect only so long as such person is possessed of, or is a member of a partnership or officer of a corporation holding, or is employed by the holder of, such detective agency license.

5.12.090 Private Guard License-Fee. It is unlawful to engage in the occupation of private guard to prevent theft or unlawful taking of goods, wares and merchandise or to purport to engage therein without a private guard license, the fee for which shall be set by Council Resolution and which shall expire on December 31st of each year. No private guard shall operate except as an employee under a duly licensed detective agency. Application for such license shall be made to the city clerk on a similar form and shall follow the same procedure as is provided herein for a private detective license.

Section 6. Taxicabs. Section 5.16.030 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.16.030 License Required - Fees. It is unlawful for any person to own or operate any motor vehicle for hire such as a taxicab, or any other vehicle for the transportation or conveyance of persons for hire upon any of the streets or public ways of the city without having first obtained a license from the city and having paid a license fee for each cab and for each driver as set by Council Resolution. The license shall be for the calendar year in which issued, shall not be prorated for any portion of the year, and shall not be transferable either as to cab or as to driver license.

Section 7. Cabaret Dances. Section 5.20.020 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.20.020 License Required - Fees - Payment. It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to operate or conduct a cabaret dance within the City without first having obtained and being the holder of a valid and subsisting license to do so, to be known as a "Cabaret Dance License." The fee for any such cabaret dance license shall be set by Council Resolution. The entire annual license fee shall be payable for the applicable calendar year regardless of when the application for license is made and shall not be prorated for any part of the year; provided, that the annual license fee for original applications only may be prorated on a quarterly basis, payable in advance for the remaining part of the calendar year according to the quarter of the year in which the application is made. Annual license renewals shall be payable in full on January 1st of each subsequent calendar year of operation. No license to conduct a cabaret dance shall be granted unless the applicant therefore be of good moral character.

Section 8. Public Dances. Section 5.22.020 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.22.020 License Required - Fee - Renewals.

- A. It is unlawful for any person to conduct a public dance within the city without first having obtained and being the holder of a valid and subsisting license for such activity, to be known as a public dance license; provided, however, that any holder of a valid and current cabaret license shall be exempt from the license provisions of this Chapter. The annual fee for a public dance license shall be set by Council Resolution.
- B. The entire annual license fee shall be paid for the applicable calendar year regardless of when the application for license is made, and shall not be prorated for any part of the year except that if the original application for license is made subsequent to June 30, the license fee for the remainder of that year shall be one-half of the annual license fee. Annual license renewals shall be obtained and paid in full by January 1st of each calendar year.

- C. There shall be assessed and collected by the clerk an additional charge computed as a percentage of the license fee, on renewal applications not made, including payment of the required fee, on or before January 1st of each calendar year. The amount of said additional charge shall be set by Council Resolution.

Section 9. Circuses, Shows and Carnivals. Section 5.28.020 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.28.020 Fees.

- A. The license fee for circuses or carnivals shall be a set amount per day for each day or part of a day that the circus or carnival is on exhibition.
- B. The license fee for any show held outdoors or out in the open shall be a set amount for each day or part of a day that it is on exhibition to the public.
- C. The amount of the fees described in subsections A and B shall be set by Council Resolution.

Section 10. Transitory Amusement Fees. Section 5.32.010 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.32.010 Franchise Fee. All businesses in the field of entertainment or exhibition for profit, whether operated by individuals, corporations, partnerships or otherwise, desiring to do business in the City of Redmond, are henceforth required to obtain from the city clerk a permit to do such business, and, upon application therefore, shall pay to the clerk as a franchise fee an amount to be set by Council Resolution per concession for each day on which it is intended to do such business.

Section 11. Music Boxes. Section 5.36.060 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.36.060 Fees. The fee for the master license and the fee for the operator's license required by this Chapter shall be set by Council Resolution. The master license fee shall be payable in full at the time the license is issued and shall not be prorated for any part of the year. The operator's license fee shall be payable annually in advance in accordance with the number of music boxes to be covered by the license. Music boxes placed in operation during the year will not be covered until the entire annual fee for such machine has been paid without prorating the same.

Section 12. Massage Parlors and Public Bathhouses. Section 5.52.050 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.52.050 License - Fees.

- A. The fee for a public massage parlor license and the fee for a public bathhouse license shall be fixed by Council Resolution. In addition, a nonrefundable application fee in an amount fixed by Council Resolution shall accompany each application for such a license.
- B. The fee for a license as a masseur, masseuse, public massage parlor attendant, or a public bathhouse attendant shall be fixed by Council Resolution.

Section 13. Tow Trucks. Section 5.56.060 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.56.060 License - Fee. Every application shall be referred to the Mayor whose duty it shall be to investigate the applicant, and if satisfied with his qualifications, recommend to the City Council that a license be issued. Upon proper authorization by the City Council, the City Clerk shall, upon receipt of the annual license fee, issue a license which shall expire on December 31st of the year in which it is issued. An annual license fee shall be established by Council Resolution for each vehicle to be operated, and a separate license shall be required for each vehicle, describing the specifically licensed vehicle.

Section 14. Animal Control Fees.

A. Section 7.04.040 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

7.04.040 Dog and Cat Licenses - Fees.

- A. Dog and cat licenses shall be issued by the animal control authority upon application and payment of an annual license fee to the county comptroller as established by Council Resolution.
- B. City residents sixty-five years of age or older shall be entitled to purchase a special permanent license for the lifetime of cats or dogs which are neutered or spayed and for which they are the registered owners when said animals are maintained at said owner's registered address. The special permanent animal license fee shall be established by Council Resolution, provided that the owner provides written proof that the animal has been spayed or neutered. Such residents shall not be required to annually purchase a new license for the lifetime of such licensed animals; provided, that no person shall be granted more than three permanent animal licenses for any combination of three cats and dogs for which they are the registered owner.

C. All license tags issued herein shall be securely affixed to a substantial collar, harness or other means which shall be worn by the dog at all times. As an alternative to a license tag, an animal may be identified by being tattooed on its right ear or on its inside right thigh or groin with the license number approved or issued by the animal control authority.

D. King County Animal Control Section is authorized to collect a fee for a lost or stolen license tag replacement to be established by Council Resolution.

B. Section 7.04.050(A) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

A. The City Council shall, by resolution, establish penalties for late registration and licensing of dogs and cats kept and maintained within the City as provided in this Chapter.

C. Section 7.04.070 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

7.04.070 Shelter, Kennel or Shop License - Required. It is unlawful for any person to keep or maintain any animal shelter, kennel or pet shop within the City without obtaining a valid and subsisting license therefore. A fee to be established by Council Resolution shall be assessed, not upon the individual animals, but upon the owner or keeper of an animal shelter, kennel or pet shop. Each license and certificate of inspection issued pursuant to this Chapter shall be conspicuously displayed at the establishment to which such license was issued. The license shall be dated and numbered and shall bear the name of Redmond, King County, Washington, and the name and address of the owner or keeper of the establishment, and the expiration date of the license. The license shall run for a period of one year from the date of purchase.

D. Section 7.04.100(A) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

- A. License Required. It is unlawful for any person to keep or maintain any dog or cat within the city for the purposes of a hobby kennel without obtaining a valid and subsisting license therefore. The fee for such license shall be assessed upon the owner or keeper of such animals and shall be set by Council Resolution. In addition, each animal shall be individually licensed pursuant to the provisions of Section 7.04.040.

E. Section 7.04.140(A) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

- A. License Required. It is unlawful for any person to keep or maintain any grooming parlor without first obtaining a valid and subsisting license therefore. A fee to be established by Council Resolution shall be assessed for each such license. However, if the grooming parlor is operated as part of the business of a kennel, or a pet shop, a separate fee to be established by Council Resolution shall be assessed. Such fee shall be in addition to the fee established for a kennel or pet shop license.

F. Section 7.08.030 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

7.08.030 Impounding Fees. Upon any person establishing his ownership or right to possession of animals so impounded, the same shall be delivered to him upon payment of an impounding fee to be set by Council Resolution. It shall be the duty of the officer impounding the same to attend to the proper care and feeding thereof.

Section 15. Horses and Mules. Section 7.12.020 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

7.12.020 Impounding - Fees. Chief of Police shall detain any horse or mule found running at large in the public pound or any other suitable place which may be chosen by him for the purpose. He shall be entitled to charge the owner of any impounded animal a fee to be set by Council Resolution for each day or part of a day the animal is detained for the care and feeding thereof. The Chief of Police shall take means to ensure the animals proper care and feeding. He shall charge an impounding fee to be set by Council Resolution for each impounded animal. All such fees shall be collected by the Chief of Police before delivering possession of any impounded animal to the owner thereof.

Section 16. False Alarm Fees. Section 9.20.050 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

9.20.050 False Alarms - Fees.

- A. For police response to any false alarm, a City may charge and collect, from the person having or maintaining such burglary and/or robbery alarm on premises owned or occupied by him, fees as follows:
1. No fees shall be charged for a response to a premises at which no other false alarm has occurred (hereinafter referred to as a "first response"). Upon a first response, notice of conditions and requirements of this Chapter shall be given to the owner or occupant of the premises on which the false alarm occurred and upon which the burglary and/or robbery alarm is located.
 2. A fee to be established by Council Resolution may be charged for a second response to a premises. The person having or maintaining such burglary and/or robbery alarm shall, within five working days after notice to do so, make a written report to the Chief of Police on prescribed forms setting forth the cause of such false alarm, the corrective action taken, whether and when such alarm has been inspected by authorized service personnel, and such other information as the Chief of Police may reasonably require to determine the corrective action necessary. The Chief of Police shall be authorized to inspect or cause to be inspected the alarm system at such premises, prescribe necessary corrective action, and shall give notice to the person having or maintaining such alarm system of the conditions and requirements of this section. All costs of inspection and corrective action shall be borne by the individual having or maintaining the alarm on the premises.
 3. A fee to be established by Council Resolution may be charged for a third or subsequent response to a premises. If a third or subsequent false alarm occurs as a result of failure to take necessary corrective action prescribed, the Chief of Police may order the person having or maintaining the burglary and/or robbery alarm to disconnect such alarm until the prescribed corrective action is taken and a certification of such corrective action is provided to the police department; provided, that no disconnection shall be ordered relative to any premises required by law to have an alarm system in operation.

- B. For the purpose of determining whether a response is a first, second, third or subsequent response to a false alarm, only those responses which previously occurred in the same six month period shall be counted. A six month period shall be from January 1st to June 30th or July 1st to December 31st of that year.

Section 17. Fireworks.

A. Permit Fees. Section 9.26.050 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

9.26.050 Permit Fees. The annual fee for a "seller's permit" for the sale of fireworks and the annual fee for a "public display permit" for the public display of fireworks shall be set by Council Resolution.

B. Bond. Section 9.26.070(6) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

- (6) The applicant shall post with the City a performance bond or cash deposit in an amount set by Council Resolution, conditioned upon the prompt removal of the temporary fireworks stand and the cleaning up of all debris from the site of the stand, which deposit shall be returned to the applicant only in the event that he removes the temporary stand and cleans up all debris to the satisfaction of the proper officials of the City. In the event of his failure to do so, the performance bond or cash deposit shall be forfeited. In no event shall the applicant be entitled to the return of the performance bond or cash deposit if he has failed to remove the stand and clean up all debris by the 10th of July following the sales period.

Section 18. Special Event Permits. Section 10.60.030 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

10.60.030 Permit Application and Fee. An application for a Special Event Permit shall be submitted to the Public Works Department with a nonrefundable application fee in an amount to be set by Council Resolution no later than ninety days prior to the proposed event. The following information shall be provided: purpose of the special event; name, address and telephone number of the sponsoring organization and/or individuals; proposed date, location and hours of operation; schedule of proposed events; and such other information as the Public Works Department or another City department deems reasonably necessary to determine that the permit meets the requirements of this Chapter.

Section 19. Street Work Permit. Section 12.08.060 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

12.08.060 Permit Fees. Permits required under this Chapter specifying the authorized work shall be issued by the director of the department of public works or his designee upon proper application therefore and upon payment of the fees required as follows:

1. A basic fee in an amount established by Council Resolution; and
2. The estimated cost of inspection as determined by the director of the department of public works, including the City's labor, overhead and all other costs, provided, that said amount shall not exceed five percent of the estimated cost of construction; and
3. In the event that reinspection is necessary, an additional fee shall be charged in an amount determined by the director of the department of public works to equal the City's costs of performing the reinspection, including all labor, overhead and other costs.

Section 20. Street Reimbursement Agreement Applications.
Section 12.10.070 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

12.10.070 Application Fee. The applicant for Street Reimbursement Agreement as provided for in Chapter 12.10 of this Code shall reimburse the City for the full administrative and professional costs of reviewing and processing such application and of preparing the agreement. At the time of application, a minimum fee to be established by Council Resolution shall be deposited with the City and credited against the actual costs incurred. The applicant shall reimburse the City for such costs before the agreement is recorded.

Section 21. Side Sewer Contractors. Sections 13.04.050, 13.04.060, 13.04.080 and 13.04.180 of the Redmond Municipal Code shall be amended to read as follows:

13.04.050 Installation by Contractor-License
Fee Bond.

- A. It is unlawful to make any connection to any public sewer or to lay, repair, alter or connect any private drain or sewer, in any public area, except by the holder of a side sewer contractor's license issued under the provisions of this Chapter and unless such licensee has filed a bond in an amount to be set by Council Resolution.
- B. No licensed side sewer contractor shall break, alter or tamper with any public sewer without specific approval and under the direction of the City Engineer, except that he may connect to a wye or a tee which exists for that purposes.

13.04.060 Contractor License Application -
Renewal. Any person desiring a side sewer contractor's license or renewal thereof shall make application therefore in writing to the city clerk upon a blank form to be furnished for that purpose. With each application for a license or renewal thereof, there shall be paid a fee to be set by Council Resolution.

13.04.080 Bond. Every applicant for a side sewer contractor's license or renewal thereof must file with the city clerk a bond in a form approved by the City Attorney and in an amount set by Council Resolution conditioned on the applicant and licensee indemnifying and saving harmless the City from all claims, actions, or damages of every kind and description which may accrue to or be suffered by any person by reason of any opening in any street, alley, avenue, easement, or other public place made by him or those in his employ, in making any connection with any public or private sewer, or for any other purpose or object whatever, that he will also replace and restore such street, alley, avenue, easement, or other public place to as good state and condition as at the time of commencement of the work and maintain the same in good order for a period of one year after completion of the work, and that he will comply with all of the provisions of this chapter and any other ordinance of the City relating to the business of side sewer contractors, or work in public streets, avenues or alleys.

13.04.180 Fees. Fees for side sewer permits shall be prescribed by Council Resolution.

Section 22. Sewer Inspection Charges. Section 13.06.010 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

13.06.010 Inspection Charge. An inspection charge shall be paid by all persons connecting to the sanitary sewer system at the time of application for service. The inspection charge shall be set by Council Resolution.

Section 23. Utility Reimbursement Applications. Section

13.12.040 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

13.12.040 Application. An application for reimbursement agreement shall be made on a form provided by the City. The application fee shall be set by Council Resolution and shall be submitted to the City with the written application and shall be accompanied by:

- A. Preliminary utility design drawings;
- B. Itemized estimate of construction costs prepared and signed by a licensed civil engineer or in the form of a bid submitted by a qualified contractor (if more than one bid has been obtained, all bids must be submitted to the City);
- C. A scaled vicinity drawing on 8-1/2 inch by 11 inch mylar, stamped by a licensed civil engineer or licensed land surveyor depicting the improvements and their location and the proposed benefitted area, including dimensions and county assessor's numbers for each tax parcel, size of parcels, and evaluations where necessary for determining benefits;
- D. A separate legal description for each tax parcel within the benefitted area; and
- E. Such other information as the director determines is necessary to properly review the application.

Section 24. Water Shutoff Fee.

A. Section 13.16.120(e) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

- (e) If any delinquent charge on a water service account remains unpaid at the close of business on the date shown on the water shutoff notice, an administrative fee in an amount established by Council Resolution shall be added to the account and water service shall be discontinued and the water shut off after giving such notice as may be required by water department shutoff policy. Service will not be resumed until all delinquent charges have been paid by the water user, including the administrative fee. Any meter shut off due to nonpayment of the utility bill will not be turned on before 8:00 am or after 4:30 pm, Monday thru Friday.

B. Section 13.16.130(a) of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

- (a) Any person tapping into the City water system or the City sanitary sewerage system, other than under the supervision of the public works department and without paying the connection charges, inspection fees, and permit fees required to be paid thereof, and any person turning on water service after the same shall have been cut off pursuant to Section 13.16.120 and without paying all delinquent charges, together with the administrative fees specified in Section 13.16.120, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine therefore of not more than $100 or to imprisonment for not more than thirty (30) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 25. Condominium Conversion Inspections. Section 16.04.130 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

16.04.130 Mandatory Housing Code Inspection and Repair - Notice to Buyers and Tenants. Prior to delivery of the 120 day notice described in Section 16.04.060, developers shall, at their expense, request an inspection of the entire building by the City's building official for compliance with the housing code. The inspection shall be completed within 45 days of a developer's request unless the developer fails to provide or refuses access to building official personnel. The developer shall also be required to install an approved fire alarm system if required by the Uniform Fire Code as adopted by the City or by other City ordinance. The installation of the fire alarm system and all violations of the housing code revealed by the inspection must be completed and corrected at least seven days prior to the closing of the sale of the first unit or by the compliance date on the inspection report, whichever is sooner. A follow-up inspection for compliance shall be completed within seven days of a developer's request. A copy of the building official's inspection report and certification of repairs shall be provided by the developer to each prospective purchaser at least seven days before the signing of any earnest money agreement or other binding purchase commitment. Copies of the inspection report shall be delivered to tenants in the converted building by the developer with the notice of sale as provided in Section 16.04.060. An inspection fee in an amount set by Council Resolution shall be paid by the developer whenever an inspection is requested as required herein.

Section 26. Severability. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance should be held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance.

Section 27. Effective Date. This ordinance, being an administrative action, is not subject to referendum and shall take effect five (5) days after publication of the attached summary which is hereby approved.
