Electrical Code
(National Electrical Code,
1975 Edition)

CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON

ORDINANCE NO. 758

AN ORDINANCE, relating to the installation and use of electric conductors and equipment installed within or on public and private buildings and other premises, including connections of such installations to a supply of electricity and also mobile homes and travel trailers (Electrical Code for the City of Redmond); and amending Section 15.20.020 of the Redmond Municipal Code.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Amendment. Section 15.20.020 of the Redmond Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

15.20.020 Adoption. The National Electrical Code, 1975 Edition, published by the National Fire Protection Association of 470 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, is adopted by reference and incorporated herein as if fully set forth at length herein as the electrical code of the city for regulating the installation and use of electric conductors and equipment installed within or on public and private buildings and other premises, including yards, carnivals and parking lots, and industrial substations, conductors that connect the installations to a supply of electricity, other outside conductors adjacent to the premises, and mobile homes and travel trailers within the city, except such portions as may be deleted, modified or amended by this chapter; and from the effective date of the ordinance codified in this chapter the provisions thereof shall be controlling within the limits of the city. Three copies of the National Electrical Code have been filed and will be kept on file in the office of the city clerk for use and examination of the public.

Section 2. Effective date. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force five (5) days after the date of its publication in the manner provided by law.

PASSED by the Council of the City of Redmond, Washington, at a regular meeting thereof, and APPROVED by the Mayor this 5th day of April, 1977.
